Ms. Nadya Suleman

Dear Ms. Suleman:

We would welcome an opportunity to talk to you about starring in a movie produced by Vivid Entertainment, the world's leading adult film company for a fee of up to $1-million.

Your movie would be distributed under our Vivid-Celeb imprint, which has released titles starring such personalities as Pamela Anderson, Kim Kardashian and most recently, former Miss USA Kelli McCarty. Kelli chose our studio to make her transition from NBC daytime star to hardcore adult star with her first movie "Faithless" which has become a best seller since its debut on February 4, 2009.

We hope you will give this project serious consideration and that you will contact me at your earliest convenience to discuss this matter.

Sincerely,

Steven Hirsch
Co-Chairman
Vivid Entertainment
