

01-23-2011

Dear MARK ZUCKERBERG,

Honestly I don't know how to start. I know that you will view my letter in a aggressive mode. If you seen by previous letter. I would like to apologize for my obnoxious behaviour.

Believe me, with no other option left to me, I thought keeping a personal mail to you, may going to solve my mother problem.

My name is PRADEEP working as a software engineer for a organisation, But today I am not talking as a pradeep or an employee of that organisation.

Today I am talking as a son to my mother.

Who had become helpless in supporting his kin.

I am here to make an personal appeal.

I am pretty sure much of the thought that you will trash my letter without giving a second thought, Before doing that, please think for a while, that somebody life is associated with your decision.

I know you must be getting loads of mail every day and some of them asking you for your help. And in turn you are indeed helping them back in the form of DONATIONS & CHARITIES

One thing I want to make it very clear. I am not asking any charity or donations. I know the importance of money, at the same time please understand ~~the importance of money~~ value of life

I promise that I am going to repay the entire amount incurred while for her treatment

I plead, please help me in saving my mother. I am ready to die for you. Please Mark please Communication is a cornerstone in any relationship may be even the most important foundation that need to be able to hold up overtime.

I beg you for my mother life, please spare 2 MINUTES of your valuable time. In

In order to explain her condition

Afterward decide what you would like to do?
I am going to honoured what may be your decision is?

If you think I am sick or mean in any sense then take whatever action you would like to do.

I am sorry for approaching you directly

I swear as daughter, I have no harmful intentions or get associated with your name.

Believe me, what I am doing is my last effort to save my mother. Hope you are going to understand a son pain.

I am waiting outside at your house
please do the useful assistance in saving my mother.

Most Important words "SAVE MY MOTHER"

If Priscilla is ~~seeing~~ reading this letter

I beg you sister, please convey this message to Mark.

Time is really running out for my mother
Please do the needful help

Thanking you

Truly
Pradeep

please convey my apology to Randi Zuckerman

My lord

I promise, this would be my last mail and I will never bother you again. I am extremely sorry for yesterday's inconvenience cause to you, due to my behaviour.

I Truly Didn't mean to hurt you in any way please believe me, my only concern was at that time is my mother's life.

I am sorry say, but imagine for a while, what you will do if you are in my place? Fear of losing your mother, when you ~~approach~~ ask help from the company where you are working, instead of helping, they fired you. This is what my present situation is.

I understand it's all my problem, I have to solve ~~my~~ myself. It's not at all concern to you. Even though I approach you for the help?

You must be wondering, why only you?

Believe me Mark, I ~~also~~ always admire your achievements and your simplicity. Being in your fifties, you lead a modest and simple life and the concern towards society. You have been a constant source of inspiration to all of us.

Trust me, I am praising you, these are the known facts about you.

I beg you, please give me one chance to prove myself that I am not failed in securing my family. I do really want to work with you and to keep my promise that I am going to repay the entire amount incurred for my mother's treatment.

Please believe me, I swear on my 26 weeks old son who is yet to born and on my 18 month old daughter, that I am not an impostor.

I am ready to put my sweat and blood to prove myself that I am not an liability. If I failed in any sense, you can skin me out. I am ready to face any consequence if I found to be guilty.

Believe me, with no other option left at this time and I cannot able to arrange the financial aid for my mother treatment in this shortspan. I request you to do the needful thing

Once again. I am extremely sorry for the inconvenience cause by me.

Thanking you.

Truly
Pradeep