

Dear Fans, Friends, and Media,

I want to take this time to express my deepest and sincere apology for the video that aired on TMZ on May 13, 2011.

The video that was aired on TMZ is a careless and irresponsible rant that was egged on by anger and alcohol in response to a fight I was involved with over a year ago. Moments prior to the recording, I was subjected to racial slurs during a physical fight with a group of African American women. This is not a defense for such foul behavior; however, I take full responsibility for my inexcusable comments.

Words cannot erase the pain that I have caused and I hope that those affected by my hurtful words can forgive me.

Sincerely Apologetic,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Christina Hopkins". The script is cursive and fluid, with the first name "Christina" written in a larger, more prominent hand than the last name "Hopkins".

Christina Hopkins