Re: Kim Kardashian

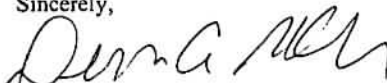

Dear Ms. Biermann:

I am counsel to Kim Kardashian. My client has been advised that IN TOUCH WEEKLY is about to publish a false article and story based upon purported facts that you described in your email of today's date to Jill Fritzo. I have spoken to Jenifer Levin, counsel to Lauren London, who has indicated that a third party is impersonating Lauren London. Consequently, any information that you receive directly or indirectly through this Lauren London impersonator should not be relied upon. Additionally, for the record, none of the facts contained in your email to Jill Fritzo are accurate.

Demand is hereby made that you and IN TOUCH WEEKLY immediately refrain from publishing, distributing or disseminating any factually untrue and unsubstantiated information regarding my client since these falsehoods are, at a minimum, damaging, defamatory, and an invasion of her privacy. I expect an immediate email confirmation from you that you and IN TOUCH WEEKLY will comply with this demand. Failing that, I will be forced to take appropriate legal action to protect my client's rights, and you and IN TOUCH WEEKLY will be acting at your and its legal risk and peril. Govern yourself accordingly.

This letter is not intended as a complete statement of all facts concerning this matter. Nothing contained herein shall constitute a relinquishment of any of my client's rights, remedies, causes of action, or claims for relief at law or in equity, all of which are expressly reserved.

Sincerely,

Dennis A. Roach
