Miss, Laurence Pieau
C/O Closer Magazine

Dear Ms. Pieau

Allow me to introduce myself, my name is Corey Price and I am the Marketing Director for Youporn.com, the world's largest adult website. Our website generates over 15 million hits a day and by it's name you already pretty much know what is featured on it.

Ms. Pieau, you have stated that you are currently in possession of "intimate footage" of the future Queen of England, Kate Middleton and Prince William that you are not going to show at this time. We'd like to make an offer on this footage since we believe this is an incredibly newsworthy story, and we are already being slammed with emails from our site's loyal visitors begging us to make an offer.

We feel very confident that we can show this footage legally, and would like to make you aware that we have an "open checkbook". We'd truly like to have the first crack at this, as we know that this type of litigation can be a "royal pain" for your magazine to deal with, and our site is a much better fit when it comes to sexy videos, that's what youporn.com is all about!

I can be contacted at my email listed below.

Sincerely,

Corey Price
