

Hi Kanye-

Hope you are well

I was wondering about your thoughts on Julian Assange.

I support him and I know you value

Free Speech -

Visibility is good for him especially in America.

Where they are trying to put him away for life or worse for exposing corruption in governments.

I think they are trying to kill him.

It is Torture -

He's been locked in a small room for almost 6 years in London at the Ecuadorian Embassy.

And He now can have no visitors. No Phone calls or internet.

They are squeezing him.

He is genius.

A real world leader that young people love.

So

I want to seek more voices and share more about his fight.

Public support could set him free.

Media is monopolized

So some brave voices are the only

Hope to break through.

I've always supported your 'no filter' -
you speak your mind.

And

you make an impact.

I'm sure a lot of people feel like you -

They just are stuck in what society says is OK to say.

If you want to know more about Julian
Let me know
Or just look at his life and writing.
How he has sacrificed
for the truth.

I think you'd admire him.

Take care of you
